

Week #1

Formation of the group. Amanda and Salma decided to be in one team because our areas of study are a little different which will allow us to learn from each other as well as different sets of knowledge would help us to create something solid for our senior project course. While Amanda's focus is in web designing, Salma's focus is on software development and data structures.