Week #4

We have made several meetings with our clients. We created an ERD to help us focus on the process. Creating an ERD diagram of the project helps us visualize how everything is connected. The arrows are color coded to help show the separate processes.